

CIRCUIT COURT FOR OCTOBER

JUDGE GALLOWAY OPENED SECOND DEPARTMENT THIS AFTERNOON WITH 58 CASES ON THE DOCKET FOR TRIAL.

The regular October term of the second department of the state circuit court, Judge William Galloway presiding, will convene at the court house at 1 o'clock this afternoon and the first case to come up for hearing upon the docket will be that of the Southern Pacific company against the Oregon railroad commission. This is a suit for an injunction against the enforcement of an order of the railroad commission requiring the Southern Pacific to construct and operate a spur or sidetrack at Edenbower station, on the line of the Southern Pacific in Douglas county, and for the stopping of freight trains at that station for the receipt and discharge of freight.

The principal contentions of the railroad company, in asking for an injunction, is that Edenbower is but one and one-half miles from the county seat, and that the latter point by a well constructed highway; that the community is sparsely settled; that the station is located upon a steep grade; that the shipment of freight from that point is not insubstantial quantities to warrant the establishment of a spur; and that if the company were required to stop its trains at that point, it would work a serious hardship upon the service and result in great loss to the company.

Judge Galloway has a total of 58 cases upon his docket for this term, some of which will probably be carried over to another term, as the conditions warrant, and others will be set for hearing and it is probable that his court will be in session for several days.

COMPLAINS ABOUT THE "POLYGAMY CENTRAL"

J. L. Edmiston, of Sumpter, Oregon, has filed complaint with the railroad commission complaining of the lack of freight and passenger depot facilities or accommodations at the station of Meenen, on the line of the Sumpter Valley Railroad and petitions the commission to provide for them the accommodations which they lack. He states that Meenen is a regular station on the line of the Sumpter Valley road and that the depot which used to be maintained at that point was burned down about a year ago and the company has failed and refused to rebuild the depot to the great suffering of the traveling and shipping public to and from that station. He says that the trains stop regularly enough but that the freight that is delivered there is simply dumped out upon the ground and permitted to suffer the action of the elements and that passengers arriving at or departing from there are forced to wait out in the rain for trains that are often far behind their schedule time.

SUMMON WITNESSES IN DYNAMITE CASE

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 31.—Witnesses who have been summoned to appear before the grand jury at Los Angeles in the Times dynamite investigation will report at the local grand jury room at 10 o'clock next Wednesday.

Attorney Earl Rogers, who has been in San Francisco serving subpoenas, will leave for the south tonight, his work here having been completed, he said today.

STUMP SPEAKERS ARE WORKING OVERTIME

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] San Francisco, Oct. 31.—The stump speaker will be worked overtime and the campaign spellbinder, in a more dignified way, will labor just as hard during the seven days intervening before the fall election.

In California the campaign is ending in the approved "whirlwind" fashion. Both parties are putting forth every effort to win, and each is claiming victory already won.

Bel and Johnson both will be in San Francisco during the closing week. At least three big meetings will be addressed by Hiram Johnson, the Republican candidate, and two will hear Theodore A. Bell, Democratic candidate for governor.

ANOTHER TACOMAN IS STARVING HIMSELF

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 31.—Twenty days have passed since Prof. H. M. Colvin, instructor in Spanish at the University of Washington, had a morsel of food. If he doesn't get hungry the faster will continue to abstain from nourishment for another fortnight at least.

During this time he has taught 16 classes a week and attended as student, 12 classes a week in the law school. For exercise he has worked in the gymnasium and on the track. He has also written several magazine articles since beginning his fast. Colvin has suffered with stomach trouble and is acting upon the hypothesis that what his stomach needs is a good rest.

MAYBE HE MIGHT DO REAL WORK NOW

Chicago, Oct. 31.—That impairment of a golfer's ability to swing his brasses, or any other of his war-clubs, constitutes a real injury has been settled through the award by a Chicago jury of $10,000 damages to Frederick B. King, Oxford graduate, and professional golfer.

King, who was injured on a Chicago street car, asked for $20,000 damages for a damaged wrist, and swung his clubs in court to demonstrate that his stroke was affected.

MOISSANT FLIES LIKE A METEOR

HAS THRILLING RACE TODAY, BUT WINS EASILY—NEARLY WRECKED HIS NEW $10,000 MACHINE IN MAKING LANDING.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]

Belmont Park, N. Y., Oct. 31.—After one of the most thrilling air struggles ever witnessed in America, John B. Moissant, the American aviator, who yesterday won the $10,000 prize for circling the Statue of Liberty, was today returned the winner of the $3000 two-hour distance race.

The contest developed into a duel between Moissant and Latham, the Frenchman, with Simon, Latham's team-mate, a serious contender. Moissant won because he had a start of several laps on his competitors, but until the last lap he was crowded to his utmost.

Moissant was the first to rise when the starting signal was given. While his competitors were making false starts he reeled off mile after mile, being several laps to the good before Latham got away.

On the first turn Latham challenged him, and the two raced neck and neck for five laps, while the crowd rose to its feet and cheered both aviators impartially. Latham flew at an altitude of 150 feet, Moissant skimming as close to the ground as possible.

At the sixth turn Latham put on an extra burst of speed and took the lead, but this advantage was short-lived, for Moissant was shorted, and he sped up and pulled away. Latham's jockeying forced Moissant to fly so low that it was impossible to pass him.

At the end of the first hour Latham had gained several miles, the score being: Moissant 22 laps; Latham 18, Simon 15 Mars 1.

The second hour Moissant had things pretty much his own way, although at times Latham gave him a hard tussle.

Towards the last when he saw that he could not overcome Moissant's lead, Latham slowed down, allowing the American to win, 53 laps to 35. Simon made 27. Moissant's distance was 80 miles.

In descending Moissant lost control of his machine and nearly hit the score board, breaking his propeller and smashing one wheel of the chassis. It was the same machine that he paid $10,000 for to Alfred Le Blanc yesterday, and in which he captured the Statue of Liberty prize.

Count De Lesseps and a woman passenger gave a clever exhibition while the race was going on.

De Lesseps, Johnstone and Drexel were entrants in an altitude contest.

THE JUDGE ROASTED ATTORNEY

JUDGE DUNNE EXPRESSES HIS OPINION CONCERNING WHITE SLAYERS AND ALSO OF THE OFFICERS OF THE JUVENILE COURT.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]

San Francisco, Oct. 31.—Sentencing George Pearce and William Bellmaine, convicted white slavers, to three years imprisonment at San Quentin, Judge Dunne today sharply arraigned the attorney representing Bellmaine and accused the juvenile court of incompetency.

"I want you to understand," said the court, "that I have no illusion about the young men. You know, perhaps, as I know, that they are the least of the offenders in a case of this kind. Behind them is a very vicious system and it is this system I would like to have righted. It is the people who compose the system and make it possible who ought to be punished. If the juvenile court had any officers connected with it who knew the system, perhaps we might have had the representatives of the system here and perhaps we might not be trying these young men."

"It would seem that San Francisco is a kind of clearing house for the purpose of furnishing the interior of the state and along the coast with women, and it is an awful thing to contemplate."

Addressing Bellmaine's attorney, John Williams, Judge Dunne said: "I think these people ought to be punished—not as severely, perhaps, as the people who hired Bellmaine's attorney to come here. They are the real criminals."

Williams gave notice of an appeal and asked the court to have the evidence transcribed.

"I will make no such order at the present time," said the court. "Let the system which employed you pay the expense of writing up the transcript and then you may have this testimony."

AVIATORS ARE MAKING SOME FINE FLIGHTS

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]

Belmont Park, N. Y., Oct. 31.—Although the international aviation meet was officially closed when the sunset gun was fired last night, the aviators today vied with each other in a series of special events, providing as good sport as any that has yet been seen.

Features of the program were the two-hour race and final grand speed test between Grahame-White and McCurdy. The first race carried a prize of $3000 to the winner and $1000 to the loser.

The victory of John Moissant in the race yesterday to the Statue of Liberty and return, while a popular one, created a spirit of unrest among the competing birdmen, and Grahame-White today announced he would fly to the Statue in an effort to beat Moissant's time of 34:35.84. While the judges ruled that Grahame-White will not be permitted to fly twice in the same contest, it is understood that he will make a formal demand for the $10,000 prize offered by Thomas F. Ryan, if he succeeds in beating Moissant's record.

TYPEWRITER SMITH LEAVES HIS MILLIONS

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Seattle, Wash., Oct. 31.—According to dispatches received here today, Lyman C. Smith, many times millionaire and head of the typewriter manufacturing company bearing his name, was stricken with apoplexy in his home today in Syracuse, New York.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Seattle, Wash., Oct. 31.—Prince Ghika, of Roumania, whose family ruled the country for three years, is being entertained in Seattle today. Hunting in Alaska, he says, equals hunting in the dark continent.

In an interview with a reporter, the prince renounced his rights to the throne of Roumania, declaring that the dynasty now in power, backed by the powers of Europe, is for the best interests of his country.

Now I have taken three bottles of Foley's Kidney Pills and feel 100 per cent better. I am never bothered with my kidneys or bladder and again feel like my own self. This I owe solely to Foley's Kidney Pills and always recommend them to my fellow sufferers."—Red Cross Pharmacy (H. Jerman).

THE JOKE IS TURNED ON JOKERS

FRIENDS THOUGHT TO KIDNAP BRIDEGROOM BUT OUTSIDERS THINKING IT WAS A REAL SCRAP, SOUNDLY WALLOPED THE JOKERS.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]

Long Beach, Cal., Oct. 31.—Walter J. Riggs and his bride are on their honeymoon today, while three friends of the groom, who led a party to kidnap him after the ceremony, are in jail, and three others are in a Seaside hospital, suffering from injuries sustained during the free-for-all fight that followed the attempted abduction.

Riggs is a member of the Long Beach fire department. Other firemen are believed to have been at the head of the plan to take him from his bride as they left the church.

Members of the bridal party rushed to Riggs' assistance, and a score of passersby, believing that the man and woman were being held up, joined in the melee. A passing street car was stopped, and the motorman is alleged to have cracked several heads with his controller bar.

A riot call for the police brought a dozen patrolmen, who arrested the men who had not fled at the approach of the police automobile. A guard of four officers then mounted the steps of the automobile in which Riggs and his bride were driven to their train.

MEN KNEW NOTHING OF TIMES EXPLOSION

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Los Angeles, Calif., Oct. 31.—The Los Angeles police deny that the men arrested at Acapulco, Mexico, on suspicion that they might know something regarding the Times explosion are the persons for whom the local authorities are searching. The police have found Captain John Osterhaus, who took the Kate, on which the men were found, on the first leg of her voyage down the coast. Osterhaus, it is said, has convinced the officers that the men know absolutely nothing of the affair.

It was reported here today that the police will do nothing to secure the return to Los Angeles of the trio. It was determined that no steps to secure their extradition have been taken beyond the correspondence last week, before the arrests.

EASILY BREAKS A SEVERE COLD

Pape's Cold Compound is the result of three years' research at a cost of more than $50,000 dollars, and contains no quinine, which we have conclusively demonstrated is not effective in the treatment of colds or grippe.

It is a positive fact that a dose of Pape's Cold Compound, taken every two hours until three consecutive doses are taken, will end the Grippe and break up the most severe cold, either in the head, chest, back, stomach, limbs or any part of the body.

It promptly relieves the most miserable neuralgia, headache, dizziness, head and nose stuffed up, feverishness, sneezing, sore throat, running of the nose, mucous catarrhal discharges, soreness, stiffness and rheumatic twinges.

Take this harmless Compound as directed, with the knowledge that there is no other medicine, made anywhere else in the world, which will cure your cold or end Grippe misery as promptly and without any other assistance or bad after-effects, as a 25 cent package of Pape's Cold Compound, which any druggist in the world can supply.

As yet it is no crime for a man to vote for some Republicans and some Democrats.
